

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF WARRICK COUNTY, INDIANA

ORDINANCE NO. 2007 - 05

AN ORDINANCE REPEALING COMMISSIONERS' ORDINANCE 2000-12

WHEREAS, on June 12, 2000, the Board of Commissioners of Warrick County passed Ordinance 2000-12, which is codified at the Warrick County Code of Ordinances, Section 131.69, which states as follows:

All control of and monetary/budgeting responsibility for the positions of Animal Control Officers for the county shall hereafter be under the control of the Board of Commissioners and not the County Health Department.;

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of Warrick County has been appointing the Animal Control Officer; and

WHEREAS a policy was adopted by the Board of Commissioners to have Animal Control Officers report to the Superintendent of the Highway Department; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of Warrick County now returns the control of and the monetary and budgeting responsibilities to the County Health Department;

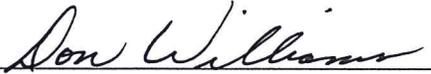

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDAINED AS FOLLOWS:

1. the Board of Commissioners of Warrick County, Indiana hereby repeals Ordinance 2000-12, as codified at the Warrick County Code of Ordinances, Section 131.69;
2. that the control of the position of Animal Control Officer is hereby returned to the County Health Department effective immediately, and such Animal Control Officer shall no longer report to the Superintendent of the Highway Department;
3. that the monetary and budgeting responsibilities shall be returned to the County Health Department effective January 1, 2008, and that the County Health Department shall include all anticipated costs of the Animal Control Department for the year 2008 in their 2008 budget requests to the Warrick County Council.
